LESLIEVILLE U.F.W.A.

The Leslieville U.F.W.A. met in the Community Hall on Saturday, Sept. 23, in the absence of the President, Mrs. C. Clark, as Vice-President. The object of the meeting was to discuss the question of reducing the membership fee of our Local from $3 to $2 per year. It was finally decided to make this reduction.

The principle business of this meeting, however, was in connection with a communication received by the Local from the Principal of the School of Agriculture at Olds, dealing with the recently established scholarship offered by that institution to assist some girl of the district to secure the advantage of a year in the Home Economics course of that school.

All U.F.W.A. and Women's Institutes within a certain district are invited to send one contestant each to compete for this scholarship during a three-day course which is to be held Oct. 2 to 5. Each organization paying the expenses of its representative during the course. As this matter comes directly in line with the aims and purposes of the U.F.W.A. as an institution, the meeting unanimously decided to send Miss Muriel McTavish as the representative from our Local, who has been fully qualified, according to the requirements laid down by the school for all who enter the competition. While, necessarily, not one girl can win the scholarship, nevertheless the experience cannot fail to be of benefit to each girl who attends this short course with the idea of conscientiously doing her best while there.

At the next meeting of the Local, which will be held on Oct. 21st, the 3rd Sunday, at 3 o'clock p.m., Miss McTavish will give a full report of her experience during the three days at the school. It was decided to begin the next meeting promptly at the hour appointed, 3 p.m., providing that five members are present at that time. All are welcome to the meeting.

MRS. G. BAILEY,
Secretary-Treasurer

ROCKY MT. HOUSE

September 27, 1922
Mr. John Lewis returned this evening, with his little girl, who was taken to the Red Deer hospital a few weeks ago, suffering from a broken leg.

The members of the local I.O.O.F. are holding an "At Home" last Thursday evening, at which a most enjoyable time is expected.

We are very pleased to see Fred Stewart once more on the staff at the station.

There is talk of the C.N.R. making a night run of their mail and passenger service between here and Nordskog. The members of the local Orange Order are holding a social at the Rocky Mountain House on Thursday evening, which was voted by all present as one of the most sociable events ever held in the village, owing to the fact that the program consisted of progressive whist, songs, etc., with an hour's dancing after the lunch, which was provided in plenty and taste by the ladies. The prizes were won by Miss S. Zager and Mr. B. Shuller.

Geo. Toth has opened again in the restaurant business, in the old Forestry building, owned by T. D. Green. The new school is coming along very nicely, and will be ready for school purposes in a very short time.

Chas. Burnford returned home by last Wednesday evening's train.

Guy Fawkes night will be celebrated at Rocky Mountain House on the evening of November 4th. If you don't want to miss an exciting and enjoyable evening, save the date and watch for posters.

Re-organization of the Club Cafe, which was destroyed by fire last May, was commenced last week. It will be a large, comfortable building.

Arthur Brockman, who has been at home all summer, is again firing on this division of the C.N.R.

WHY ARE HOG PRICES FALLING?

(Calgary Market Examiner)
Everybody has been so fussed up about the cattle prices lately that the plums in hogs has not received much attention, though the price has dropped $2.75 per hundred since July.

Twenty years ago, somebody is asked why Canadian hog producers have been given the price of the price of Canadian hogs was governed by the selling price of the Wilshire sides in the old country. Last June, when hogs were selling in Toronto at $14.50, and in July $15.50, the best Canadian bacon was not worth the cost of the country at 140s.

Last week hogs were down to $11.50 in Toronto, and the best Canadian bacon in the old country was still quoted in the government cable at 140s.

We give the Toronto selling price on hogs because it is the largest market in Canada and should therefore be least susceptible to fluctuations.

Since last February the hog prices in Canada have been fairly steady, as had the bacon price in the old country—up to the first of the present month. Then the break started in hogs.

If there was a reason for the decline noticed, it has given the producers any information.

There was to have been a committee appointed as announced at the pie conferences, which would keep track of these fluctuations and tell the cause. So it has been fluctuating, though perhaps it will come into action when the government graders are appointed, which should be fairly soon now.

But in the meantime shippers to the Toronto yards are getting $1.50 less for each 200-pound hog they sell than they did in July and the British bacon price is the same.

The Examiner does not pretend to know the cause of the drop, but there is an estimate that accounts for part of it, and that is the decline in best prices, which necessitates a lower price in order to get pork into consumption.

But that was not reckoned on as a factor during the hog conference, when we were told that the prices of hogs would be governed by the price of Wilshire sides.

There is one thing. The Examiner does know, and that is how the producer will figure it out. He will see that the packers are getting ready to take care of the premium on select hogs when the government price starts. Hogs had been selling at Toronto from February to July at prices between $12.75 and $13.50. By the middle of September they had dropped to $11.50. Even if they do not drop below that figure and it was set as the price for the ordinary thick, smooth hog, the ten percent premium on $11.50 would bring the price of bacon hogs up to $13.

All through this period the price of prime bacon in the old country remains unchanged.

There may be some other reason for the drop, but the hog raiser will have to talk very loudly to make the hog raiser believe anything else. Even a cheap, and there is probably more money in hogs than in any other product of the farm, but the Canadian farmer will not be able to see why he should not get as much for his hogs as he did a few months ago, when the chief article of export is selling at the same price.

If it would ease the mind of any farmers to write a letter to us about the hog question, go to it.

which centres around the crime of bootlegging. The details surrounding this case are such that they reflect honour on the A.P.P. as an organization and upon the young officer who gave up his life, the victim of assassins who held a rather depraved viewpoint on the question of the enforcement of the Liquor Act. For a comparatively new organization, the Alberta Provincial Police is establishing a record which will compare favorably with that of any other similar police force.

All Alberta's history is intertwined with the records of competent police service, under which the province has developed and progressed with a high sense of appreciation for the observance of law and order. The Alberta Provincial Police is maintaining this splendid tradition, and the despicable crime of last week will awaken both pride and sympathy in this body's work.

Alberta could not afford to have the impression go abroad that any lawless element in the province could carry on law-breaking with impunity and long survive retribution.

New A. & G. W. Time Card
The Alberta & Great Waterways company announce a change in time card effective on October 2nd. The trains on this railway will depart from and arrive at the Dunes yards instead of 21st street, Edmonton. Through trains leave Dunes yards on Mondays at 10:00 a.m. and the local train for Lac La Biche leaves on Thursdays at 10:09 a.m. Taxi-cabs and buses connect with these trains and down-town points, leaving one hour earlier. There is sleeping and dining car service on the through trains.

Alberta Exhibits for International and Royal Shows
The Department of Agriculture has decided that special assistance will be given this year for livestock and grain exhibitors, who wish to show at the forthcoming international exposition in Chicago, or at the Royal Show in Toronto. This action has been taken in view of the need for economy.

Grain Grading High
In a season like this, when the wheat yield in various portions of the province is not uniform, and when the prices for grain are not as high as the producers would wish, a measure of satisfaction can be found in the fact that the wheat is grading high this year. Since the beginning of the shipping season, the Canadian Pacific Railway reports, up to Sept. 20th, 10,151 carloads through Winnipeg, 73 percent of which graded No. 1 Northern better. Six cars grading Manitoba Hard. The Canadian National Railway are moving forward through Winnipeg 1,400 cars of grain per day.

It is wonderful how quickly a fair grain crop in the west quickens the beat of the commercial and industrial pulse. For the first time in two years the car department of the Ogden C.P.R. shops at Calgary are working full time. At Edmonton the Canadian National Railway is spending a quarter of a million dollars in building the first unit of their western

The world's production in wheat for 1922 is estimated at 5,000,000 bushels, which is 70,000,000 bushels less than 1921, and 215,000,000 bushels more than the average for 1916 to 1920. Perhaps here is one reason for poor wheat prices. In the United States and Canada there is an increase of 30,000,000 bushels over 1921.

TURKS CALL HALT TO OPERATIONS

Nationalists Are Agreed to Armistice. Orders to Suspend Activities
Constantinople, Oct. 1.—Orders for a cessation of military movements in the Chanak region of Asiatic Turkey and for the suspension of the activities of the Turkish irregular forces in the Near East have been issued by Kemal Pasha, the Turkish Nationalist leader.

The Turkish Nationalist authorities have agreed to an armistice conference in Mudania on Tuesday, and have requested the allied power commissioners to appoint delegates. The Nationalists will be represented by Ismet Pasha and possibly by Hamid Bey.

The Kemalists have evacuated Ereli and the British now control the whole coast of the narrows to Chanak from Kavar Bournou. The latter point possesses an excellent quay, enabling warships to anchor in deep water.

Paris, Oct. 1.—The general feeling in Paris tonight is that the danger period in the Near East situation is past. The withdrawal of the Turks from Ereli and, as semi-officially reported, also from their positions at Chanak, is accepted as proof of the Ankara government's readiness to comply with the allied desires.

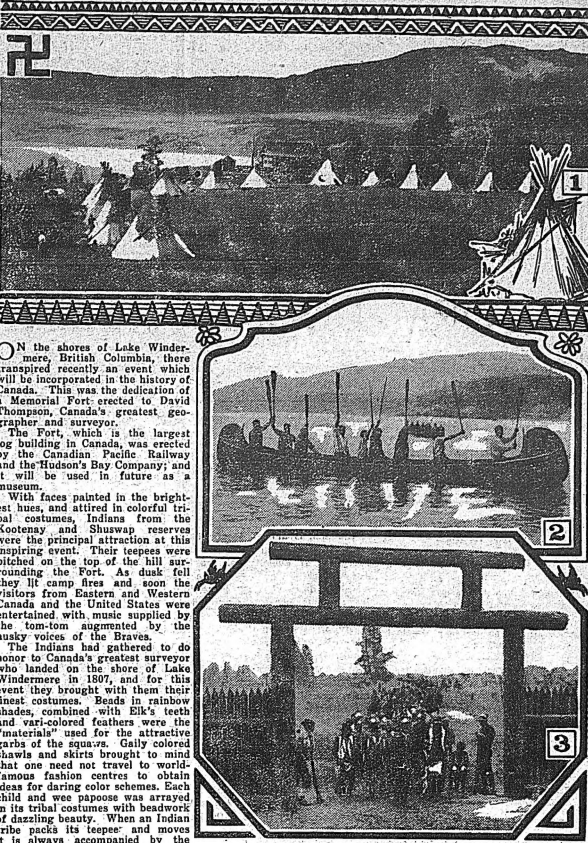

Great Britain is given credit in French official quarters with having held a dignified firm attitude which has greatly contributed to the solution of the difficulty. At the same time Mustafa Kemal Pasha is praised for having shown a conciliatory attitude which, it is hoped, the British will not overlook, as the Kemalists will have evacuated the neutral zone first. French officials are anxious that Great Britain will find a means to satisfy Turkish public opinion.

Concession by Turks
London, Oct. 1.—The Turks have evidently made a concession with regard to the time limit set for the embarkation of refugees at Smyrna, which expired Saturday. They did not officially extend the limit, but they are permitting, without molestation, the vessels now in Smyrna harbor to take the refugees aboard, and many are being evacuated under the United States and British flags.

It is said that so far 120,000 have been embarked, but nearly as many more are awaiting relief.

The presence in London of the former Greek premier, M. Venizelos, continues to occupy attention. He called today and O. A. C. barry 123 days, but did not see Lord Curzon, nor Premier Lloyd George at No. 10 Downing street. It is explained that his visit might be misinterpreted. However, there is no doubt that he intends to act abroad for Greece, and that he will attempt to secure a favorable settlement from a Greek viewpoint of Thrace and other questions. M. Venizelos is silent on the advisability of action by the new Greek cabinet toward the reorganization of the army and defence of Thrace.

IMMIGRATION IS C.P.R. OBJECTIVE, E. W. BEATTY SAYS

GOOD ORGANIZATION IS PRIME ESSENTIAL

"The theory behind the establishment of the Western Canadian Colonization Association is, of course, sound, and with competent administration it should form a useful agency in assisting the carrying out of the government's immigration policies," remarked E. W. Beatty, president of the Canadian Pacific, who arrived in Calgary on his annual tour of inspection of the company's lines. The president, however, only remained a few minutes, but it is his intention of stopping off for a day or so upon his return from the coast.

Used With Advantage
In continuing his remarks on immigration, Mr. Beatty said that all existing immigration agencies could be used with advantage. Making the government's policies practically effective, and this would seem to be essential unless the government itself was prepared to establish a widespread organization at considerable expense to obtain immigrants and enable them to secure lands for settlement and assist them in their operations during the first few years in order to afford the greatest possible chances for success.

Essential Requirement
"The essential thing is that the Western Canadian Colonization Association be thoroughly well organized," he said, "and secure the confidence and support of those in the west and the east, from whom such support, financially and otherwise, must be received. The Canadian Pacific has been in touch with the project from its beginning," he added, "and it is hoped that the activities of the company will be bound to accomplish the results aimed at, but having its own colonization organization it should be able to do with great benefit to Western Canada."

Best Possible Effect
The president said he had been much impressed with crop conditions as he saw them on a tour of branch lines, as well as the main line, and said the beautiful yield was bound to have the best possible effect on business sentiment throughout the Dominion.
Sir Augustus and Lady Nanton are guests of the president on his present trip. He is being accompanied by D. C. Coleman, vice-president of western lines. J. M. Cameron, general superintendent of the Alberta division, proceeded with the Canadian Pacific head as far as Field.

THE SEA-HEEDGEHOG

A not uncommon fish in the waters bordering countries on the shores of both the Old and New World is called by Americans the sea-hedgehog. This fish, the dodon, has a rough covering, or rather, the inflation gives it scales a chameleon-like quality, and when it swallows air and inflates its sides, it looks quite as bristling and formidable as an armadillo, and is bound to appear. No doubt many a fishy foe passes it by when it takes on this fierce body mask, and some of the handiest fishermen would grasp at any live thing so armed. Such is its defense.

It has several cousins with this power of inflation, but without the covering like a chameleon.

TWO SUDDEN DEATHS AT STETTNER, ALTA.

Stettner, Alta., September 37.—Samuel Wedoworth, who has resided in Stettner for some years, dropped dead yesterday, while riding horseback, near Red Deer. Will Wedoworth, his brother, died of heart failure.

The body was brought to the McGillivray undertaking parlors. The funeral will be held at Stettner tomorrow. He leaves a wife who is conducting a private hospital here.

RULES FOR LONG LIFE

"By a remarkable coincidence the collective wisdom of three centenarians, who unannouncedly brand over the heads of the greatest cause of life health and premature death, is made available to the American people to-day," says the Times New York correspondent.

"Mr. John A. Stewart, one of the most famous 'American' bankers and Mr. Barr Spangler, a well known merchant and president of the First National Bank of Lancaster, Pennsylvania, yesterday, celebrated their hundredth birthdays. Dr. Stephen Smith, the father of American public health," died yesterday within a few weeks of completing a century of life leaving ten maxims on longevity for the benefit of his countrymen.

"Dr. Smith was the first graduate of the American College of Physicians, qualifying in 1850.

"A favorite saying of his was: 'Every man who dies before a hundred, practically speaking, dies by his own knife and fork.' His ten maxims for longevity are:—

"Eat hardly any meat.
"Drink lots of milk; if it disagrees with you drink more.
"Take a ten or fifteen minutes nap after lunch and dinner.

"Sleep ten hours.
"Sleep outdoors when the weather permits.
"Don't smoke.
"Take no alcoholic or other stimulants.

"Avoid the easy chair; absence of work is the first step to the grave. Finally, just be natural; quit all fooleries."

"Mr. John A. Stewart, who is still active as chairman of the trustees of the United States Trust Company of New York, and was Lincoln's financial adviser during the Civil War, said: 'My great motto is moderation. Eating too much is as bad as drinking too much. And I haven't smoked for eighty years.'

"Mr. Barr Spangler's testimony again is an echo of that of both of his contemporaries. 'I attribute my long life and health,' he declares, 'to moderate eating—I take but two meals a day. Do plenty of work and take little medicine. I have never smoked.'

DE VALERA'S CONFIDENTIAL DOCUMENTS ARE SEIZED AND WILL BE DISCLOSED

London, Sept. 25.—Extraordinary disclosures concerning Eamon De Valera will be published by the Irish provisional government this week, according to the Dublin correspondent of the Daily Express.

A series of confidential communications from De Valera to Liam Mellows, who was taken prisoner when the Four Courts building was surrendered and is now in Mount Joy, was being conveyed to the prison by a smartly dressed young woman, says the correspondent, when she was arrested and the despatches confiscated by government agents.

THE DAY-OF-REST

Natal Advertiser
The Councilors readiest to flout the moral law in regard to Sunday rest are the least disposed to take counsel with the electorate as a whole, or listen with patience and courtesy to those bourgeois who differ from them. When the immemorial rights of municipal employees are ruthlessly scrapped, the civic rights of the bourgeois as a whole cannot be regarded any longer as secure.

The man who, in one breath, says "to places with the one day's rest in seven," is the most likely to add, set to voice, "and to places with those who believe in it."

They are not dead who live in hearts they leave behind. In those from whom they have blessed, they live a life again. And shall live through the years. Each day more beautiful. As time declares their good. Forever the rest and proves Their immortality.

CONSTANTINE GIVES UP THE GREEK THRONE AFTER REVOLT

Bloodless Revolution is Launched by Army Forces at Salonika

London, Sept. 27.—Rector's Limited, says authoritative news, has been received of the abdication of King Constantine of Greece.

London, Sept. 27.—A Central News dispatch from Athens, timed 8.30 o'clock this morning, says: "King Constantine signed an abdication decree without reservation."

Revolt Starts in Army
Athens, Sept. 27.—Eight thousand troops at Salonika have revolted, insisting on a change in government. Sections of the army in the Aegean islands have also revolted.

Part of the army in Thrace demands that the king join the army there.

The officers and troops who revolted at Salonika have sent word to Athens insisting on the impeachment of several of the former premiers, including M. Gounaris and M. Stratis, who are held responsible for the adverse campaign in Asia Minor. They also demand a change in the government and the establishment of a new neutral cabinet.

Fleet Joins Revolutionaries

London, Sept. 27.—The Greek fleet has gone over to the revolutionaries, who announce that every officer and member of the crew is wholly with them, according to a Central News dispatch from Athens.

The movement is headed by Col. Gonatas, is making headway in all directions. The dispatch, which is dated Tuesday night, says the cabinet had been in continuous session for many hours. No official statements had been issued, but it was understood that the ministers were drawing up a manifesto addressed to the people.

Thus far, it adds, the revolution had been bloodless, despite the exodus of the people, who were surging through the streets and gathering outside the public buildings.

THEY SOFTLY WALK

They are not gone who pass beyond the clasp of hand. Out from the strong embrace; They are but come so close. We need not grope with hands, Nor look to see, nor try To catch the sound of feet; They have put off their shoes To softly walk by day.

Within our thought, to tread Our own dreamed paths Of sleep.

They are not lost who find The sunset gaze, the goal Of all the weary years. Did not are they who reach The summit of their climb. The peak above the clouds. And turn it. They are not lost. Who find the light of sun And stars and God.

They are not dead who live in hearts they leave behind. In those from whom they have blessed, they live a life again. And shall live through the years. Each day more beautiful. As time declares their good. Forever the rest and proves Their immortality.

MAURICE THINKS BRITISH CAN HOLD CHANAK POSITION

Military Expert at Constantinople Returns From Visit to British Forces

Constantinople, Sept. 26.—Major General Frederick G. Maurice, the British military expert, who has just returned from a visit to the British positions at Chanak, expressed the opinion that the British would be able, if necessary, to hold this key position against any attempts to drive them out.

General Maurice thought there was no question that Mustafa Kemal Pasha would accept the allied proposals, with reservations.

"But if he elects to fight us," added the general, "we are prepared. Our land, naval and air forces are such that we can prevent him from crossing the straits and invading Thrace and can successfully keep him out of Constantinople."

Can Defend Straits
"Our positions at Chanak, which command the narrow of the Dardanelles, are adequate to thwart any attempt he may make on the straits with the object of reaching Constantinople. Our troops which have held Chanak ever since the so-called neutral zone was first established, have been largely reinforced, and there is a considerable force in the neighborhood. Further forces are enroute from England, Malta, Egypt and Palestine."

"With the aid of marines landed from the fleet I consider Chanak a very strong position. Three lines of trenches have been dug. These are protected by barb wire and supporting a strong position. Owing to the position of the ground it is easy to support the defences by gunfire from sea level and by the heavy artillery which has been brought from Malta and landed on the European side of the straits.

Near Plains of Troy
"Chanak, which is near the historic plains of Troy, could be captured only after a heavy bombardment and an attack by a well-organized force. This means there is ample time for the British reinforcements now on route to reach the Dardanelles before the Turks can bring up their troops against Chanak."

"Our forces can hold this position against anything which our adversaries can bring against it. Our equipment there is even more advanced than that used during the world war."

Major General Maurice said the power of the Komalists army should not be exaggerated. It consisted, he said, of six army corps, one of which was a cavalry corps, comprising in all 180,000 men, more than half of which could be regarded as fighting troops.

"Its equipment is very varied," added the general, "embracing Turkish, Russian, French and Italian arms. It has modern 5.2 inch artillery and special aeroplanes. It is not, however, to be feared in organization and discipline with a first class European army."

NATION BUILDING IN CANADA

Universities to Follow the Railroad in Binding East and West Together
For the Cause of National Unity

Hand in hand with the material growth of Canada, with the extension of her population, and the development of her natural resources, moves forward the current of her intellectual and spiritual life. The race of men and women whose adventurous spirit and indomitable courage are making a nation, are the kind that are content with the merely material things of life. Canada's pioneers of a little while ago were young men who saw visions, and old men who dreamed dreams, and their sons and daughters are no less gifted. Their broadening horizon now includes a new world of mental and spiritual effort in which they, in turn, must be pioneers.

The realization of this fact has become a living force in the fine universities that are already doing a great work at Winnipeg, Edmonton, and Saskatoon and Vancouver.

In the making of the Canadian nation so many avenues of transport and communication have worked towards completion of the structure the foundation stone of which was laid by the Dominion Federation. Canada's national unity is founded and fostered by the political and physical links that bind east and west, but it can be fully developed only when the avenues of Canadian thought move east and west as do those of trade. This is the thought that lies behind the recent donation of the C. P. R. of three annual scholarships of the value of $500 each to Toronto University for the purpose of inducing graduates of Western Colleges to complete their studies at that great Canadian centre of learning.

The universities of Western Canada are growing fast. Their standard of instruction is high, and an ever growing number of their students desire to pursue post-graduate studies beyond the stage now possible at their provincial institutions. Through these scholarships a constant stream of the brightest and most ambitious of western university students will be enabled to spend some time in Eastern Canada and thus become familiar with methods of life and thought there. As stated by Mr. E. W. Beatty, President of the Canadian Association, in his letter to Sir Robert Falconer, President of Toronto University, announcing the granting of the three scholarships, "The movement is one that will obviously be of benefit, not only to the students, but also to the communities in which they will afterwards live."

COAL From Saunders Creek

Patronize Home Industry and buy your Saunders Coal Here

The Saunders Alberta Mine is mostly local capital, and the Directors are Red Deer men who are deserving of your patronage. We would strongly advise you to place your orders immediately for your requirements in this High-grade Coal, which is mined by modern machinery and is the best prepared coal we have ever received from this field. We have the exclusive agency for Red Deer and District for this Coal and also for the Alexo Coal from Saunders Creek.

SUNSHINE DRUMHELLER COAL

We have just received our first car, since the strike, of this most popular Stove Coal, which was so much in demand last season for both kitchen and steam boiler use, and to those who have not tried out this splendid coal, may we suggest that you try a half ton order on our absolute guarantee of satisfaction basis. We would also appreciate your order for your requirements in Drumheller Sunshine Lump Coal, which is the best from that field.

To our old Black Diamond Coal customers we would like to say we are again the exclusive agents for this coal for the coming season, and would appreciate an order for your requirements in this coal before the rush begins.

We are also agents for the Edmonton Pen Coal. Call in and let us explain this coal to you.

We have just received a car of Lump and a car of Nut from the Dinuut Mine. This coal is well known here as we have handled it for the past eight years, it needs no introduction. For a cheap coal it is absolutely the best on the market.

STEAM COALS

We are selling agents for the Hiltcrest and Cadomin Steam Coals and can assure prompt service.

Orangemen! Remember that Right Wor. Bro. Robt. White will visit the regular meeting of E.O.L. No. 2884, on Thursday, Oct. 12th. All members of the Order in Red Deer are invited.

We saw our old friend Frank Petter looking up the track toward the north on Monday. When he was asked, he said, "Don't ask me a thing, or you'll have it in The News." So, mum's the word.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Bawlinheimer's many friends will welcome them back to Red Deer. They returned from Victoria, B.C., on Wednesday last, and will make their home here. It was necessary for Mr. Bawlinheimer to return to look after his interests in Red Deer.

The City Commissioners are filling all the open cracks in the cement walks with pitch this week, which is a very commendable thing to do. We hope the Commissioners will also find time to have the bushes growing in the gutters on Gaetz Avenue South cut out, as the edges of the walks are being injured by same.

Constable McDonald, A.P.P., Nordegg, arrived in the city over the C.N.R. yesterday, and claims the distinction of having brought the first through ticket from Nordegg to Red Deer. There was about two inches of snow when he left home, and traces of snow were in evidence as far as Rocky Mountain House.

It is reported that two well known Red Deer men broke all the speed records for climbing trees near Nordegg a few days ago. The bellowing of a moose a few yards away from them was the cause of the unseemly haste. They immediately decided not to argue the point. Guy says the moose looked as big as a box car.

On Sunday, November 5th, at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon, an anniversary service will be held in Horn Hill church, at which Rev. Eber Crumney, B.A., will preach. On the evening of November 3rd an anniversary supper will be served by the ladies in Horn Hill school, after which a program will be given in the church.

COMMISSIONER JOHN LAWLEY PASSES AWAY

The Salvation Army has suffered the loss of one of the most loved leaders within its ranks in the death of Commissioner John Lawley. During his last hours the Watford Corps Band, of which the Commissioner's son is bandmaster, gathered in the house and played softly, amongst other suitable pieces, "Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal." The Commissioner then sent for his son to whom he dictated the following message: "Worldly music is 'thin' to hold you up when you are dying. You want something robust and strong, something that has to do with the redemption of Jesus. And to enable a man to hold his own in the River he must bring together his sorrows of earth, and the healing of Jesus, and the place where man failed to the place called Calvary, where Jesus died. Do this and there are songs, hal-lu-lu-lu, and victories in the dying hour."

BRITISH FLEET STRIPPED FOR ACTION

While Nations Endeavor to Formulate Basis of Peace.

Constantinople, Oct. 3.—A powerful British fleet, decked stripped for action, manoeuvred at the Dardanelles today as allies and Turks talked peace. The British fleet, comprising the battleships, the battlecruisers, the cruisers, the destroyers, the submarines, the aircraft carriers and three depot ships, with numerous auxiliary vessels, swarmed about the big grey men of war. The British were not the only warships steaming in the straits of the Sea of Marmara, however. Rumanian interest in the straits was manifest with the appearance early today of three Rumanian destroyers.

Nine British first line battleships, big guns pointed to the north, were ready for action, ready to anchor, steam up, near the Hellespont. Ten light cruisers, five battlecruisers, 45 destroyers, six submarines, three aircraft carriers and three depot ships, with numerous auxiliary vessels, swarmed about the big grey men of war. The British were not the only warships steaming in the straits of the Sea of Marmara, however. Rumanian interest in the straits was manifest with the appearance early today of three Rumanian destroyers.

Harrington, British commander-in-chief; General Curry, France; Ismet, Pasha, Turkey; General Nibbeli, Italy; and General Mazarakis and Colonel Harilaou, Greece. All but the Greek representatives had arrived at Mudania. It was feared that the conference might be delayed because of the failure of the Greeks to reach there at the appointed time. Turkish troops have withdrawn from the neutral zone, pending today's conference.

"THE DICTATOR" IS REAL DRAMA

The internal disturbances of certain romantic and brilliant South American republics, which have for years furnished the American press and numerous writers with material for exciting dispatches or clever humorous discussions, were placed in the hall of fame by the plays of the late Richard Harding Davis, who was virtually their literary spokesman.

"The Dictator," which comes to the Rex Theatre next Friday and Saturday, as a Paramount offering, with Wallace Reid in the star role, is one of this type by this author. It is the play which Willie Collier made famous on the stage and one in which Mr. Davis paints an exciting picture of volcanic life in the Latin-American continent.

Walter Woods, an experienced scenarist, translated the play to screen terms, which meant modifying it somewhat, bringing certain incidents down to date and generally applying the modern brush to the canvas, which is, however, still fresh and alluring.

Lila Lee, leading woman, has the role of Juana, dainty daughter of Dr. Rivas, a self-styled "liberator," played by Theodore Kosloff. Mr. Reid, as Brooke Travers, falls in love with her and then the trouble begins. From Los Angeles the scene shifts to a tiny Latin-American republic where a bitter war between rebels and regulars is waged. James Cruze, a veteran Paramount director, handled the megaphone.

On Friday last "D" Company held their first weekly shoot at the Armouries, Red Deer, the winner of the button being Capt. W. J. Botterill with a score of 66. The best scores were as follows: Major Gibson, 66; Lieut. R. Jones, 62; Lieut. G. C. Crosby, 51; Pte. W. R. Harcourt, 50; Sgt. D. Bell, 55; Corp. R. Pigeon, 45. All members of "D" Company are entitled to participate in these weekly shoots which are held after parade. The next shoot will be held today, Wednesday, the 4th of October.
